

RIIWH5202E Enter and Work in Confined Spaces COST: $180.00 pp. min 3 students

OVERVIEW:

Delivered on behalf of Trainwest (RTO51807)

This Nationally recognized course is based on the national competency standards and provides you with the knowledge, theory, and practical ability to prepare you for all safety and practical aspects working safely in confined spaces and all aspects working safely in gas testing atmospheres. This course will also allow you to gain a sound understanding of all the Principles of hazard management and emergency response when working in confined spaces (including common hazard management measures such as lock-out procedures,

This course can be personalised for all skill levels and consists of face to face delivery, a theory and practicum assessments. MST can deliver group training at your workplace.

COURSE CONTENT

Plan and prepare for working in confined spaces
Enter and work in Confined Spaces
Correct identification of a Confined Space as per AS 2865:2009
Risk management concepts / risk assessments
Hazards identification and the hierarchy of hazard control
Roles and responsibilities of key personnel
Communications
Hazardous atmospheres
Workplace exposure standards
Use of fall protection / rescue equipment
First aid appreciation
Fire protection awareness
Entry permits
Emergency procedures
Assessment of students' competence
Theory component
Practical exercise

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimum Level of English language, literacy and numeracy skills

COURSE TIME: 8.00am to 4.30pm – Full Day

Please bring lunch a fridge and microwave is available for personal use.

There are several Lunch bars and a 7 Eleven store close by.

ADDRESS / PARKING:

43 Resource Way Malaga WA 6090. Parking is available at the training facility.

DRESS:

Long sleeve shirt, long pants and enclosed work boots and belt

Please check in at reception prior to course starting.

CONTACT US: 6270 262

training@minesat.com.au

Address: 43 Resource Way,
MALAGA, WA 6090